GOLD AND SILVER EXPORTS AND COINAGE.

The steamship Peru, which left San Francisco a few days ago for China and Japan, took $1,268,720, of which only $4,000 was gold, the balance being Mexican silver dollars and bar silver, the latter the product of American mines. The shipments of silver from New York to Europe are also quite heavy. Though they do not aggregate as much as the gold shipments, they amount to twenty-five or thirty millions a year, in fact nearly the entire product of our silver mines at the present time is exported as the metal is discarded for coinage purposes at home, except what is used in the arts and a comparatively small amount which is used for subsidiary coins to supply the people with small change.

How can the country expect to be prosperous when nearly all of the two metals used for primary money the world over is being shipped out of the country? Though we are the greatest producers of gold and silver, the only metals of which under existing laws money of ultimate redemption is made, we permit nations which produce no silver to fix the price of the metal, close our mints against its coinage, let a syndicate take our gold out of the country and then hire it to keep about $100,000,000 of the coin in the National Treasury.

Does it ever occur to the straddling place hunters of Nevada that every greenback, treasury note and national bank note in the United States is redeemable in coin? If so how do they suppose all these notes, amounting to $348,000,000 in greenbacks, $130,000,000 in Treasury notes, and about $212,000,000 in national bank notes, can be redeemed with the $100,000,000 gold in the reserve fund? Is there not abundant proof that the gold syndicate, at any time it may find it profitable to do so, can reduce that reserve in a month or two to $50,000,000, and upon that the whole circulating medium of the United States, under our present system, would be based. Are not the straddlers, every one of them, striving every day in the week, not excepting Sunday, to get all the silver they possibly can? Are they afraid that if more of the metal was coined and put in circulation or represented in the circulation by legal tender silver notes, that they would get money too easily and could afford to rest one day in the week from their incessant hunt for silver? Do they seriously think that the United States is better off by exporting its silver and selling it at whatever price European brokers are disposed to pay for it, than if that silver was coined at home, and Europe and the Orient, which must have silver, were compelled to pay its coinage value for it, instead of its present price, which is little in excess of half that value? Do they imagine for a moment that the tens of thousands, who with empty pockets are struggling for enough silver to supply them with the commonest necessities of life, are as well off as they would be if silver was coined at home instead of being exported? Has their mania for office so stupefied their mental faculties, and their zeal for party so affected their powers of observation that they cannot see, or seeing cannot recognize the changed condition of the country, and the hardships imposed on the masses by the adoption of the single gold standard? Can they see the difference between Nevada to-day with its silver mines closed, its mills rusting, its farmers running in debt because of the low price of their products and thousands of toilers gone to other parts of the country in search of employment, and the times when those mines were worked, when those mills were running and the products of the farm found a market at profitable prices in the State? If they cannot it is a waste of time to endeavor to get them to realize the change, and the friends of silver and prosperity must treat them as they do others afflicted with dementia bearing in mind that they are harmless, so far as this State is concerned, for the reason that there are not enough of them to be dangerous.

DISMEMBERMENT OF TURKEY.

According to reports from Europe the Armenian question may result in the dismemberment of Turkey. In an interview on the subject of Armenian reforms between the Turkish Ambassador and Lord Salisbury, the Ambassador said the Sublime Porte was not opposed to the reforms proposed by the powers, but Turkey could not permit the control of Armenia by an international commission. Lord Salisbury is reported as saying that if the Porte persists in refusing, it will be a signal for the dismemberment of Turkey.

Turkey, or the Ottoman Empire, was organized in the fourteenth century. Moslem hordes from Asia invaded Europe, conquered several provinces of the Byzantine Empire and in 1454 took possession of Constantinople, and made Mohammedanism the State religion. For nearly a century the Empire has been tottering and has only been saved from Russia by the intervention of England and France. Turkey has been called the "Sick man of Europe" and its death will surely result if the Powers withdraw their support in the event of its refusal to permit an international commission to establish reforms in Armenia.

Armenia is a province in Asiatic Turkey. The inhabitants are Christians and their rulers are Mohammedans. There has been an irrepressible conflict between them for centuries. The Kurds, a savage tribe of Moslem fanatics, make raids into Armenia and massacre and plunder the inhabitants, aided by the Turkish soldiery. In vain have the Armenians appealed to the Turkish Government for protection and now they ask civilized nations to intercede in their behalf. The European powers propose to give an international commission power to institute reforms which will afford protection to the lives and property of the Armenians. To this the Turkish Government objects, and if it persists Lord Salisbury says it will be the signal for its dismemberment.

THE DURRANT CASE.

A Brutal Cutting Affray and Murder.

C. P. HUNTINGTON'S SALARY.

A Mob Foiled By A Determined Officer.

THE TRIAL OF DURRANT

The Pastor of Emmanuel Church on the Witness Stand.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 5.—When the Durrant trial was resumed this morning the crowd struggling for admission was greater than ever. Two lines of policemen guarded the corridors and prevented any one from entering the corridor approaching the courtroom except jurors, attorneys, newspapermen or citizens having permits from the Sheriff. These speedily occupied chairs, and then no more spectators were admitted. The earlier part of the session was consumed in a long wrangle between the attorneys for the prosecution and defense about the accuracy of the diagrams of Emmanuel Church, which the prosecution offered as exhibits to facilitate the examination of witnesses. The defense claimed the diagrams were slightly inaccurate. Finally the court allowed the introduction of the exhibits, saying that their accuracy could be determined by actual measurements to be taken later. From the actions of defendant's attorneys the impression has gained currency that the defense will be technical if the attempted alibi fails.

HUNTINGTON'S SALARY.

Railroad Men Closely Questioned on the Subject.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 5.—At a meeting of the State Railroad Commission to-day, Chairman La Rue insisted on an answer to his question of yesterday regarding the salary paid to C. P. Huntington. Auditor Lansing said that Huntington received $10,000 annually as a combined salary from all the roads of which he is President. The witness said that all expenses had been included in the settlement he had made to the Commission. He was asked the amount of money expended for political purposes. Attorney Martin, for the company, objected. The question was insisted upon and the witness did not know. Under the severe examination of La Rue, Lansing admitted that the late W. W. Stow had been in the employ of the company and said that Stow was paid as an attorney.

When Stow made drafts on the company for large sums Lansing did not know what the money was for. He said the railroad kept no parliamentary or legislative fund that he knew of, but that amounts might be drawn for the use of attorneys and for their incidental expenses. Lansing finally said that he despised the newspapers and despised the opinion of the press. He knew nothing about the alleged railroad corruption fund.

Lynchers Foiled.

NEW WHATCOM, Wash., September 5.—A mob intent on lynching prisoners were foiled in their attempt by a determined officer. The Sheriff was preparing to convey R. H. Staub, who killed Leo Lanterman, to New Whatcom for safe keeping. The revenue launch Seout was to convey him. Before the launch arrived Staub and the boy who caused the murder were taken to the wharf. A mob had organized to lynch them and followed. The launch, in command of Lieutenant Carden, arrived just in time. A mob of fifty men armed with rifles made a rush for the prisoner, but Carden drew a pistol and announced that he would shoot any man who fired on the United States flag or on any man under its protection. The mob weakened and the prisoners were taken away in safety.

A Murderous Affray
STREUBENVILLE, Ohio, September 5.—A brutal cutting affray and murder occurred here last night. Thomas Barkus and three others adjourned from a saloon to have a tussle. Barkus, worsted William Geary, and then, while he was tussling with James Driscoll, he was stabbed.

Driscoll did not do it, and suspicion points to Frank Rosner, whom Barkus said did the cutting. All four are employees of the rolling mill. Barkus was stabbed in six places.

A Woman Commits Suicide.
FLINT, O., September 5.—Mrs. Josiah Guess, aged about 43, while suffering from temporary insanity, saturated the clothing of three beds with coal oil and set fire to them, locking herself in her room and getting into one of the burning beds. Her husband carried her out through a window, but her body was burned to a crisp. She recovered consciousness during the day and said she was tired of life and wanted to die. She expired a few hours later.

Rothschild's Bank Endangered.
PARIS, September 5.—The Laposte, a newspaper regarded as reliable, states that a man threw a bomb in front of Rothschild's bank in this city to-day. The bomb did not explode. The man when arrested declared he forgot to attach a fuse to the bomb.

Parliament Prorogued.
LONDON, September 5.—Parliament was prorogued to-day until November 18th.

The Electric Candle.

The electric candle is in great request in England for the lighting and decoration of dining and other tables. An ingenious device for lighting the candles is provided by placing small pads under the tablecloth, and taking the current from them by means of two pin points in the base of the candlestick. The candles of course are extinguished on being taken from the table and are relighted when they are replaced in the proper position. They are so arranged that the bulb and the glass mutation of a candle can be removed, when the candlestick can be used for an ordinary candle. When used with shades of colored silk, the electric candle makes one of the prettiest additions to a dinner table that is possible to imagine.—Machinist.

Kind Offer.

Impoliteness may sometimes perhaps be answered properly with impertinence. A struggling author went to an editor with a manuscript.

"Oh," exclaimed the editor, "don't bother me now. I've other fish to fry." "Well, I'll try your fish for you," said the author, "while you read my manuscript!"

So the editor had to read it.—Youth's Companion.

HAY SALT.

FINE GROUND SALT FOR HAY. To salt hay properly, put up hay, when partly cured and use five pounds of fine salt per ton of hay. The moisture in the hay will then dissolve the salt into a brine which in turn will cure and preserve the hay and add to its weight. Animals will eat it with relish and consume all that is eaten. All will be benefited. An ordinary animal will eat about one-half ton of bay per month, so that if hay is salted with five pound of salt and dissolved & taken up by the hay as it should be, each animal will get two-and-one-half pounds of salt per month and that is enough. The animals will be healthy and you will make better beef and better mutton. The merchants of Renovo furnish the salt to consumers and I will sell to consumers at $16 per ton at the S. P. Depot. The salt will cost the farmers 4 cents per ton of hay. The merchants and farmers will all make money as all do who buy from me. My Eagle Salt is 1.39 per cent purer than Higgins' Liverpool. So certified by J. Warne Phillips Chemist of the University of Nevada.
